Southern California Business Activity Levels Off, Bank Says

After seven consecutive months of record-breaking performances and despite new highs in employment for the month, Southern California's business activity leveled off in August, James J. Weigel, manager of Security First National Bank's Torrance branch, reported yesterday.

Security's business index for the month stood at 226.9 (preliminary). This equaled July's figure and was 6 per cent above last year's like period.

Employment in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area and San Diego County set new highs in August, Weigel said.

IN SOME AREAS seasonal gains in employment were balanced by moderate seasonal losses in other sections. This resulted in an overall employment gain generally in line with seasonal expectations, he pointed out.

According to Weigel, the leveling off in business indicates that a consolidation of recent gains is occurring, rather than an actual change in the upward trend.

Six of the index's 13 components advanced during August, with Los Angeles city and residential city bank debits and industrial power sales achieving record levels.

OTHER COMPONENTS, including manufacturing employment and man-hours worked in manufacturing, recorded gains over July, but the increases were less than usually occur during August, Weigel said.

Department store sales in the Southland, which hit an all-time high in July (seasonally adjusted), declined sharply. The drop is partially explained by the fact that certain traditional sales dates were shifted back from August to July, with the result that normal seasonal adjustment and comparison to year-ago sales were thrown off balance.

IN ADDITION, consumer buying has continued to be tempered with reserve despite Southern California's current record level of personal income.

This appears to be in line with retail sales throughout the nation, which have not advanced as rapidly during the recent recovery as other sectors of the economy.

Total building and construction in the Southland to date is running 2.5% higher than during the first eight months of 1960, about the same year-to-year percentage increase as recorded by the nation as a whole.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, residential construction was down from the relatively high levels of the past three months. Of the 14 southern counties, indications are that Kings, Tulare and Ventura counties will experience a record homebuilding year in 1961.

Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church Opens New Year

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church will begin a new Church year on Sunday. The report of the past year showed a record increase of attendance in Sunday School and Training Union for the Church year 1960-61. Nearly 200 new members were added during the year, an even 100 of these came by baptism.

The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will speak at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services on the subject, "Warning—Men at Work."

"There has never been a time in the history of man when a church has had a more challenging task. The enemies of Christ includes among other 'isms', the atheistic communism. These have as their common goal the destruction of the Christian way of life. Unless we rise to meet the challenge, we may lose by default," Mr. Wells will state.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the message will be on "Bible Beginnings." This is another in a series of messages on "What the Bible Teaches."

The minister of music and education, Edwin T. Isbell, will leave on Sunday afternoon to direct the music during a week Revival at the Immanuel Baptist Church of Ridgecrest.

The Church voted to alter the new educational building to make it usable for a day school if the Church desires. This will delay the starting date until such changes can be approved by the county building department.
